WHAT IS IT ABOUT?

Shared Leadership is more than just a trend – it is a forward-looking leadership model that distributes responsibility, empowers employees, and strengthens organizational resilience. But how does it work in practice? This one-day seminar equips you with the knowledge and tools to successfully introduce and practice Shared Leadership.

Ideal for managers who...

- ✓ want to learn about the different types of shared leadership (from co-leadership to collective leadership).
- ✓ want to understand what leadership really means - and what is shareable.
- ✓ create the framework conditions for successful shared leadership.
- ✓ want to learn essential skills, roles, competencies, and processes for shared leadership.
